O, Lincoln High

Oh that some angel voice was near,
To sing these notes of gladness,
To chase all silence from the air
That fills our hearts with sadness;
For gladsome notes our lips would breathe of
Lincoln, dear old Lincoln,
For gladsome notes our lips would breathe of
Lincoln.

O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High,
Tho' from thy guiding hand we stray,
Thy memories will cheer the way;
O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High,
O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High.

In fancy's light we see thy walks,
Her sunshine plays upon you,
Her vapors linger 'round thy walls,
Like ghosts of love so true;
Like treasured dreams of times long past
In Lincoln, dear old Lincoln,
Like treasured dreams of times long past at
Lincoln.

EARL D. THOMAS, Principal
A. M. University of Chicago

My Friends:

Greetings to the graduating class of 1947. I have the unique pleasure of certifying you a second time for promotion. The first time, three years ago you were leaving the R. T. Coles Junior High School. And now, the pleasure is again mine to certify you, indicating that you have satisfactorily completed the prescribed course of study of the Kansas City School District after three years of study at Lincoln High School and Junior College.

Your achievement is distinctive. When you entered the first grade, there were 777 of you. Your numbers have now dwindled to about 260. Two-thirds of your original group have failed to achieve the minimum essential for good living, a high school education. May I caution you that despite your present achievement, you are not ready for complete living. Work, Education, or continued Academic Education should be your ambition. Such education can be secured in Kansas City if you desire to take advantage of it. I urge continued study on your part.

Three things are necessary to command the respect of your contemporaries: Intelligence, character, and the ability to earn a satisfactory living. All three are within your grasp. Continued efforts on your part will give you a firm grip upon these necessary essentials which should assure your success.

Best wishes for a happy and successful life.

Sincerely,
EARL D. THOMAS, Principal.

Foreword

In this book the Senior Class of 1947 has endeavored to show in the best possible way, some of the activities carried out during the past year by the students of Lincoln High School. We hope it will bring back many pleasant memories to those who are graduating in this class and will be a useful record to all of those who have been in any way connected with Lincoln High School.

Dedication

We, the members of the 1947 graduating class feel that it is a pleasure to dedicate this book to Mr. George S. Ellison. Mr. Ellison is the former principal of Lincoln High School, who was replaced by Mr. Earl D. Thomas. Mr. Ellison's leadership cannot be expressed in words. It is our desire that all his future years be filled with happiness and the best of health.

—By ARLINE BOYD.

CLASS POEM

Dear Old Lincoln High, our time has come
Our three short years with you are done.
The fates have kindly with us dealt,
For great have been their bounties felt.
With finest training we've been blessed,
How it is used will be the test.
As Sophomores, to Lincoln we came
With great desire to win much fame.
As Juniors in the second year,
There was more of hope and less of fear.
Our Senior year we reached at last,
The goal of those years just past.
And so, we're looking forward still to
College or business as a hill,
These challenge us to onward climb
By giving strength and self and time.
True friends would be the greatest thing
That any sort of life could bring;
Especially here has this been so
Since clubs have helped to make them grow.
When we have oft been tired and sad,
Teachers have cheered and made us glad.
Then we have learned to play the game,
With success or loss to act the same;
To be the sport that West's traditions
Demand of us, despite conditions.
To character much thought's been paid,
A firm foundation's here been laid.
We'll try to live both true and strong
By keeping out those things that are wrong.
Our problems we have had to meet
Sometimes with joy, sometimes defeat.
Here by principles we've been taught;
A dream of service we have caught
Of a life that's spent for humankind
By giving strength of soul and mind.
So now, into the world we'll go—
Some may rise high, some may stay low,
But wherever we are or whatever we do
To you, Lincoln High, we'll all be true.

Evelyne Lorraine Thompson.

CLASS POEM

Dear Lincoln High, our Alma Mater,
We have come unto our parting,
After three long years of labor,
After three short years of laughter.
Gladness we have shared together.
We have held all thy traditions.
We have learned the power of friendship;
We have felt the urge to struggle
On to reach thy highest standard.
Now our day with thee is ended,
Further life and high ambition
Call us onward to the conflict,
Wider still must grow our vision,
All our lives are yet before us,
All our hearts are reaching outward,
Upward, onward, ever onward
To the days that are before us,
But the lessons thou hast taught us,
Lessons in the joy of living,
Fellowship and self-oblivion,
Kindness all men around us
Will remain with us forever,
As our last farewell is spoken
All our hearts are filled with sadness
That we must be parting from thee;
But our gaze is ever onward,
Eager for the farther vision,
For we know we cannot falter
If we follow in thy footsteps,
Wear thy colors as our standard,
Tread the path in which thou'st led us.
Guided ever by the knowledge
That the band can ne'er be broken,
For it binds us to thee ever,
Though our pathways wide may sever
In the land of the Hereafter.

—Clarissa Rogers.

Dear old Lincoln I must depart
But when I leave I leave my heart,
I remember the struggles with my studies,
Some of my teachers and some of my buddies.
And now I prepare to go to college,
Lincoln is where I obtained all my knowledge.
Dear old Lincoln, the time is here—
I hate to leave someone so dear.
There is nothing else here to be done,
I have done my best and there's more to be done.

Clarice Ware, '47.

THROUGH THE YEARS

All through the years we have struggled;
Until we have won this goal;
And we're now leaving dear old Lincoln,
But our memory will ne'er grow cold.

We hate to leave old Lincoln High,
But still we all must go.
We're sorry deep down in our hearts,
Because we love you so.

Into the world we all must go
And meet our problems face to face,
We will always try to do our best
To help uphold our race.

—DeLois Stovall.

On behalf of Mr. Thomas and Mr. Bryant
They seemed very bright,
Said what they meant,
And knew they were right.

There's Dear Sweet Miss Brydie,
She was sweet as she could be,
How she could smile so much,
Is more than we could see.

And now to dear teachers,
And friends good-bye,
Our hearts are burdened,
And hopes are high.

Accept our wishes, and last good-byes,
We will never forget, Old Lincoln High.

—Patricia Walls.

FAREWELL

Farewell old Gold and Blue!
Farewell old Lincoln High!
Now that we are through
Into the world we'll fly.

Farewell, dear old school!
Farewell, old Lincoln High!
We're leaving your old rule,
To think of it we cry.

Farewell, years of happiness and sorrow!
Farewell, years of laughter and tears!
Years we've slaved for this goal,
And we are happy as the time draws near.

—DeLois Stovall.

Class History

In September of 1944, approximately 300 Sophomores climbed the hill to "Dear Old Lincoln High" to begin the first semester of their three-year journey through her famed "Portals of Knowledge."

Many had been the tales that were told regarding a poor Sophomore's hopeless position in the great and mighty Lincoln High, but we lifted our heads, and with great will and determination (as much as a Sophomore could have under the circumstances) we pledged ourselves to be "Loyal Lincolnites" and "To conduct ourselves in a manner befitting our community, our school, and ourselves."

"Whatta ya know!" Things weren't as bad as they seemed. We were actually liking the place.

We elected our officers, just to remind the Juniors and Seniors that were still there, and we did "mighty good" in selecting them, for many are still high-ranking students of Lincoln High. Officers that year were:

President—Bobbie Hardwick
Vice President—Louella Ward
Secretary—Basil Phillips
Assistant Secretary—Bobbie Hemmitt
Treasurer—Evelyn Thompson

There! We had our officers, we were a class. We were the Soph Class of 1944-45. So we decided to do something about it, and we did. We gave the first Sop Hop in Lincoln's history. (Incidentally, it was named by Mr. Basil O. Phillips.) It turned out such a big success they made it an annual affair.

We felt good then. We'd added our names to that great list of founders in Lincoln High!

Time marches on

In September of 1945 we again climbed that hill. But take a second look. Aha! We're juniors, sophisticated, smart juniors. This year, we're gonna do the bossin', Yes Sir! Yeah, we know averting now!

So, we returned to Lincoln High and really started doing things.

For the first time in many years a Junior was elected President of the Student Council, Miss Bobbie L. Hardwick. (Remember her? She was president of our class when we were Sophomores.)

We had an outstanding class that year, and many remarkable students. Gwendolyn Hill made us very proud of her when she won the district and national first place in the Kansas City Call's literary contest.

Again we elected officers:

President—Thomas V. Brassfield
Vice-President—Onita Lowe
Secretary—Ernest Lee
Assistant Secretary—Evelyn Thompson
Treasurer—Beverly Watson

It was our duty to plan that event of events the Junior and Senior Reception. We planned and planned, and planned, and we had it—one of the best Junior and Senior Receptions ever given.

Then the dramatics department presented a wonderful Junior play, starring the one and only Virginia Starks in "Student Queen."

Again our class made history. For the first time in Lincoln's existence one of our classmates was elected for secretary of Kansas City's All-City Student Council.

Months rushed by

We returned again, for our last journey through those "Portals of Knowledge." As Seniors, we felt that we were a finished product.

We realized our duty as upper-classmen to set the pace for our lower classmates, and started our journey with dignity and refinement.

New records were established by us and many awards won.

Two of our artists received Gold Keys in the Regional Scholastic Art Contest. We were still holding our own at Lincoln.

Our dramatics department presented a novel Senior play, one of the first of its type ever to be given at Lincoln.

At last we are leaving. We have learned to love "Dear Old Lincoln High" and actually hate to depart from it.

As we pass from the "Portals" we look back and see many wonderful things that happened to us as a class.

We get a glimpse of the class that is following us and hope that they will enjoy our school, and improve it in the many things that are still left undone.

As we go on our journey to enter another "Portal of Knowledge" we shall always remember that it was Lincoln High which first taught us the art of "Good Citizenship."

We shall remember you "Dear Lincoln" and cherish that memory forever.

—Betty Rice.

THE SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class presented for their annual class play, "Your Town and Mine," a comedy drama in three acts under the direction of Mr. J. Oliver Morrison. The play, abounding in thrills and tense drama relieved by rollicking humor, was well received by both audiences. Especially effective was the novel last act where the audience became a part of the play in church trial of the Rev. Dr. Fuller.

The Wednesday afternoon cast included Richard Fischer, Ruth Williams, Everett Minor, Doris Hayes, Harold Holman, Bernice Dixon, Virginia Starks, Irving Graham, Jewel Armstrong, Otto Robinson, Gwendolyn Hill, Mary Louise Bradshaw, Odell Love, Alberta Doutherd, and Ellison Gray.

Thursday evening's cast included Richard Fischer, Ruth Williams, Everett Minor, Dorothy Queen, Harold Holman, Bernice Dixon, Virginia Starks, David McFarland, Oruelle Davis, Atto Robinson, Betty Roulette, Hazel Jean Garner, Herman Goza, Alberta Doutherd, and Ellison Gray.

The production staff was Juanita Williams, Pauline Gray, Dorothy Douglass, Paul Smith, Alfred Brown and Leon Montgomery.

The Student Council has worked untiringly toward making Lincoln High the ideal school. It has waged a relentless war against poor citizenship; it has promoted student activities and encouraged development of initiative and leadership.

Outstanding activities for this school year were the Appreciation Assembly honoring the retiring principal, and the Talent Show for the student body's enjoyment. A number of "good-will" assemblies were presented to some of the other high schools. Another interesting activity was the election of candidates and observance of High School Day in City Hall.

This organization has laid the foundation for a very successful student-governing body in the years to come.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

THE CHOIR

For the past few years under the training of our music teacher, Mr. John S. Williams, Lincoln High School has a choir which may well be called invincible. Consisting of 100 voices, these young students with oneness of heart and purpose have won their way into the hearts of the student body and of all who have heard and seen them perform. After having sung on one occasion for the Teacher's Institute, an unknown person writes, "I have heard quite a number of good singing groups, both in the United States and in Europe, and I was most delightfully pleased at the splendid work done by the Lincoln choir. Their response to leadership was most remarkable, like an artist playing upon a great organ the swelling tones crashing at heights, lull themselves into the peace, and quiet of a soft benediction."

Outstanding annual performances of this fine choir include a Christmas Vesper assisted by members of the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra, Holy Week services at the Grand Avenue Temple, Annual All High School Music Festival at Music Hall, State Teachers Convention, and Kansas City Teachers and Administrators Institute.

THE MADRIGALS

This year keen interest in the music department gave rise to a new music organization known as the "Lincoln Madrigals." The brilliant quality of the voice of each member of this group, contributes to the organ-like quality of its singing which has captivated audiences wherever they are presented. Its repertoire consists chiefly of sixteenth century music and Madrigal arrangements by Henry Purcell, Gibbons and others.

The personnel include:

Juanita Henderson	Anna Joe Harris
Bessie Ann Watson	Marlene Jones
Clarissa Rogers	Mamie Chandler
Barbara Thompson	Gloria Tillman
Clarice Ware	Zenobia Dorsey
Julia Andrews	Evelyn Thompson
Mary Anne Clayborne	Sue Jane Thompson
Billie Jean Coleman	Barbara Richards
Maxine Rice	Checena Mosley

The purpose has been to provide social, vocational, and professional guidance for the members.

Since the beginning of the organization it has been under the successful sponsorship of Mr. Lawrence Wilson as a protege club of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity.

FOOTBALL

The '46 football season was one full of surprises. After holding a strong alumni to a 6-6 tie, the Tigers lost to a good team from Columbia, 9-0. Then things went haywire and our opponents piled up scores as: 40-0, 60-0, 64-0, and 6-0.

The only victories for the season were the defeat of Douglas High of Lexington, Missouri, 21-0, and the Lincoln Junior College.

In the game for the City championship the Tigers were edged 6-0 by the R. T. Coles Jeeps in a thrilling and hard-fought game in Blues Stadium. In every game, win or lose, the Tigers fought till the end.

Other promising players were Perry Gines, Curtis MacDonald, Robert Boyd, Reedy Trigg, Paul Nelson, William Carrington, Roy Gibbs, Elmer Miller, Ernest Lee, Alfred Gines, and Samuel Smith.

With only five lettermen from the previous year returning and many casualties suffered, the Tigers did fairly well. Among the casualties were Paul Williams, Perry Gines, Burdis Herring, and Davis Lane, all returning lettermen.

BASKETBALL

The Lincoln Blue Tigers started their basketball season with a 51-42 defeat by a tricky Lincoln Alumni five. They then won from Lexington, Columbia (twice), Lincoln Junior College, Lincoln University High, and R. T. Coles. They lost to three Oklahoma teams and to Sumner of Kansas.

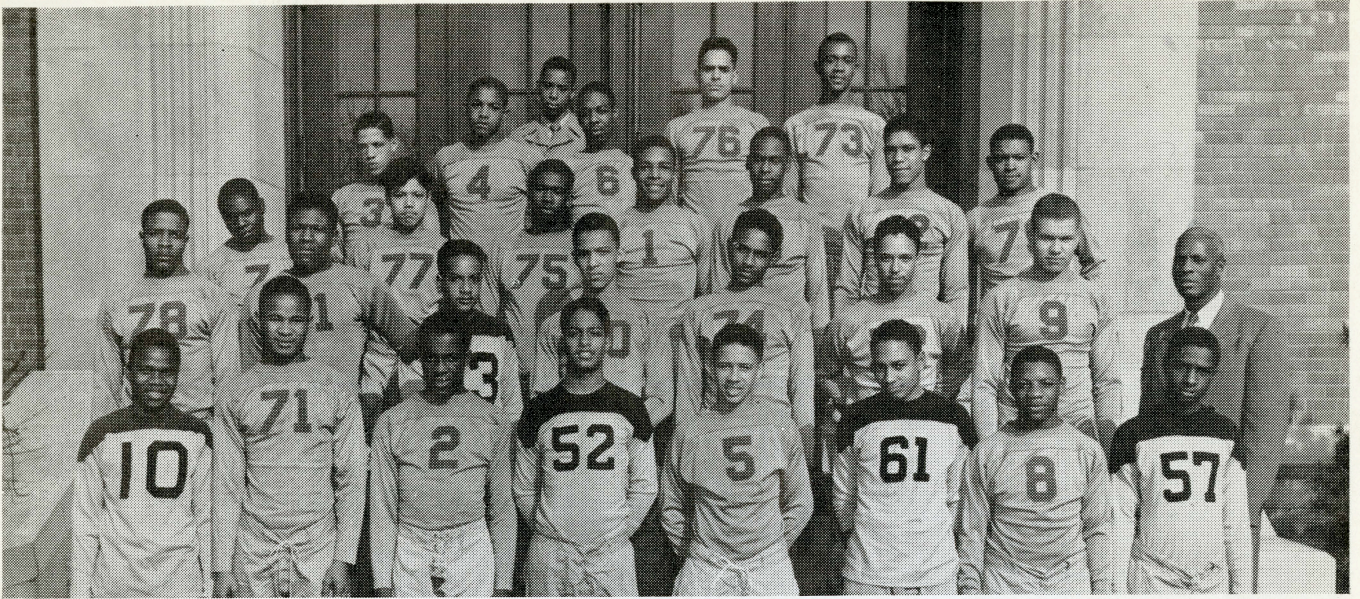

The defeat the Tigers handed the R. T. Coles five annexed for them the 1947 City Basketball Championship.

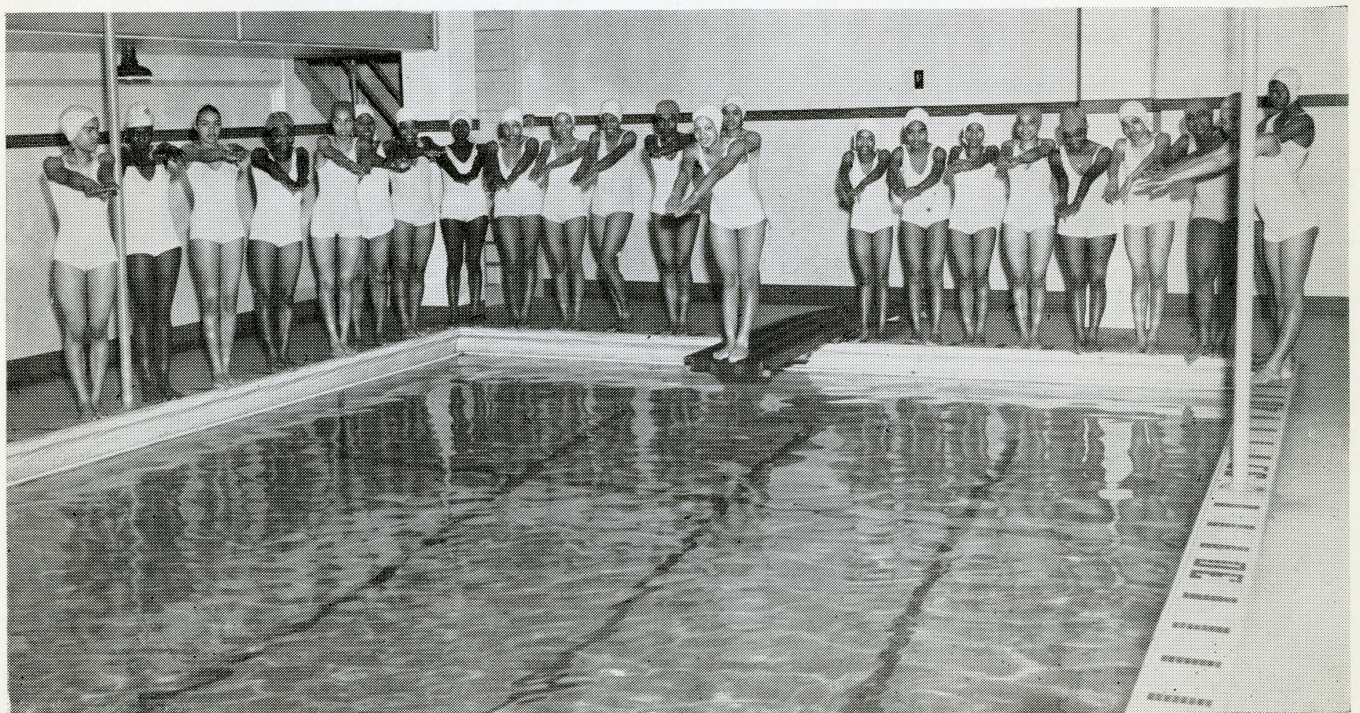

Under the guidance of Coach Mason, who returned after a leave of absence, and Mr. Anderson, the Tigers were strongly guided, and always praised whether they won or lost.

The boys on the starting team were Adolphus Bettis and Larus Parker, forwards; Paul Williams and James Twine, guards; and Adolph Johnson, center. On the runner-up team were Bobbie Renfro, Robert Palmer, Lewis MacDonald, William Carrington, and Julius Bettis. Other players were Stanley Counts, Lewis Dudley, James Johnson, Earl Carter, and John Shaw.

Some of the outstanding players were Larus "Goose" Parker, Paul "Legs" Williams, Bobbie "Lefty" Renfro, Adolphus "Cool" Bettis, Adolph "Green" Johnson, and James "Hustling" Twine.

Promising players for the coming season are Robert "Little Palmer, William "Sam" Carrington, Julius Bettis, Lewis Dudley, and Adolph Johnson.

Girls Athletics

Junior College Class History

In September, 1945, a group of eager freshmen assembled for the first time to be introduced to the school that was to be their home for the next two years. We were unaccustomed to campus life, but we soon became a part of the school and elected the following officers: James Williams, president; Dorothy Blagburn, vice-president; Gladys Nave, secretary; Marie Burgett, assistant secretary; Evelyn Bomar, treasurer; and Willa Hunter, reporter. Guided by these leaders the class entered immediately into many new, exciting activities. The Emeraldite Club elected their new pledges and many of us were quite dismayed at the humiliating initiation, but we soon regained our poise and composure.

Our attention was then turned to the annual College Savoy in which many of us participated both in the planning and in the actual performance. Despite the loss of eight of the boys to the armed forces we were able to have a very efficient basketball team. We played Stowe Teachers College of St. Louis, Sumner Junior College, Western Seminary and Lincoln High School. Then came the Christmas Party. The freshmen did more than their share of the work by working on such committees as the decorating committee and the publicity committee. Then came spring, and with spring comes the Spring Party. Once again the freshmen showed their ability to accept responsibility by working on various committees to make the party a success. And by June of 1946 we completely changed from inefficient freshmen to every eager and capable students.

September, 1946—Sophomores! Yes, we were the upper classmen of Lincoln Junior College, young men and women. We immediately elected the following officers: Coleridge Smith, president; Lavern Blagburn, vice-president; Mary Peeler, secretary; Betty Tollett, treasurer; and Willa Hunter, again reporter. With these capable leaders we zealously planned our activities for the year.

The Emeraldite Club elected the following officers: Coleridge Smith, Imperial Magistrate; Evelyn Bomar, Assistant Magistrate; Willa Hunter, Keeper of the Emerald; Doris Taylor, secretary; Lois Wilson, corresponding secretary; Madlyne Jackson, treasurer; and Mary Thomas, reporter. The boys organized a basketball team and played Western Seminary, Sumner Junior College, Stowe Teachers College, Lincoln High School. The managing of the College Savoy fell full on the shoulders of the Sophomores. Thomas Jelks did an excellent job of managing the whole affair. Teen Town was directed by a sophomore staff: Samuel Hamer, mayor; Willa Hunter, secretary; Evelyn Bomar, treasurer; Lonnie Starr, sergeant-at-arms; Clifford Brown, Doris Taylor, Thomas Jelks, Mary Thomas, Dorothy Sykes, Arthur Bell, and Mary Peeler. When May rolled around it was the sophomores who worked hard to plan the Spring Party.

Completing our two golden years of many achievements we looked forward into the uncertain and chaotic future, regretfully leaving behind us carefree days full of cherished memories, realizing the new and greater responsibility we shall assume, yet firm in our conviction that the same qualities that made for us a successful life on this campus shall help us to be the same success on other campuses and to help us seek and find our places in the world.

And so the Class of '47 goes forward, blazing those trails which will lead toward success for us and for our people.

Willa Mae Hunter.
